His Last Hope Realized.

From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.] In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after for-tune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diar rhoea which it seemed almost impossi ble to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this tiem. For sale by all druggists.

WELL POLICED.

Chief Paul Wants Extra Men for Convention Week

EXPERTS WILL BE ENGAGED

Their Special Business to Look A ter Thieves, Tin Horn Cambler And Confidence Men.

The city will be well policed during convention week. A number of the r objectionable characters who will be the Elks' reunion. Chief of Police Paul says he will ask the city council and nayor for sufficient funds to employ half a dozen or more of the most astute letectives of San Francisco, Omaha, Denver and Chicago,

"I want those men not for the purose of making arrests, but to point out to my officers objectionable characters," he continued. "They will be prought to the city fall, thrown in and ept there until after the crowds have one home. The new vagrancy ordinis now in effect, having been sign d by the mayor last Thursday. When had it drafted I had in mind the rowds of crooks which would flock into e city while the Elks were here. The old vagrancy law was too lax, but no I have one which enables me to arrest and hold persons whom we may sus-

And we can keep them under lock and key about as long as we want. I want the people of Salt Lake to feel that thugs and crooks generally will not overrun the city during that week. I am not saying much about what I am doing or have done, but I enture the assertion that if the authorties give me the men I ask for, will be few complaints come into head-quarters during the Elks' sojourn here about thefts, hold-ups and the like.

"I propose to protect the Elks and citizens alike. As fast as the "pugs" drop itno the city they will be arrested and confined in jail until the reunion is over. I do not propose to give them hours to leave town, and be constantly on the alert to see that they do not return as quick as I turn my back. With them behind bars and locks I will not have to worry

I feel confident that when the crooks learn we have a dozen of the best detectives in the United States watching every train, they will not be as anxious to come to Salt Lake as the average person believes."

ans of Utah at Saltair yesterday was essentially a winner. There were from between five to six hundred veterans present and they rendered a very interesting program that was enjoyed equally by strangers and the veterans alike. Scenes such as held sway when Poor Lo in all the glory of his war paint used to roam the mountains and valleys of Utah were depicted in pantomine. One of the most popular events was a sham battle between Indians and veterar scouts. The Indians were white men disguised, but they lived up to their parts in detail. They were dis-covered dancing and gambling right in the middle o fthe pavilion floor. Then Ira W. Gardner drifted along in the role of the inquisitive white man and was taken mean advantage of. The members of the Old Folks committee have been busy as bees today ington tomorrow. For be it known that tomorrow is Old Folks day and our gray-haired fathers and mothers propose to do it full justice. At least, such was the intimation of Charles R. Savage today when approached by ,a "News" man as to what was going to be done. "You may say," said he, "that we are going to have the biggest time of our lives, that everybody is in hearty sympathy with the movement, and that the support given it presupposes a rousing, good time for all who may be able to join with us." It is understood that Mr. Savage and associates, in their rounds among the leading merchants today met with such whole-hearted encouragement, that the success of the undertaking, so far as being able to meet the necessities of the occasion are concerned, was doubly and most liberally assured.

THE TICKETS ISSUED.

From William B. Barton, who had in hand the distribution of the tickets, the "News" learned that up till noon today a total of 1,131 tickets had been disposed of, these being apportioned to the different wards of the city and to a number of the wards and districts in Granite and Tooele stakes. With several hours yet to go it is expected that the distribution will reach fully 1,200.
